

Before the Mountains Had Been Shaped

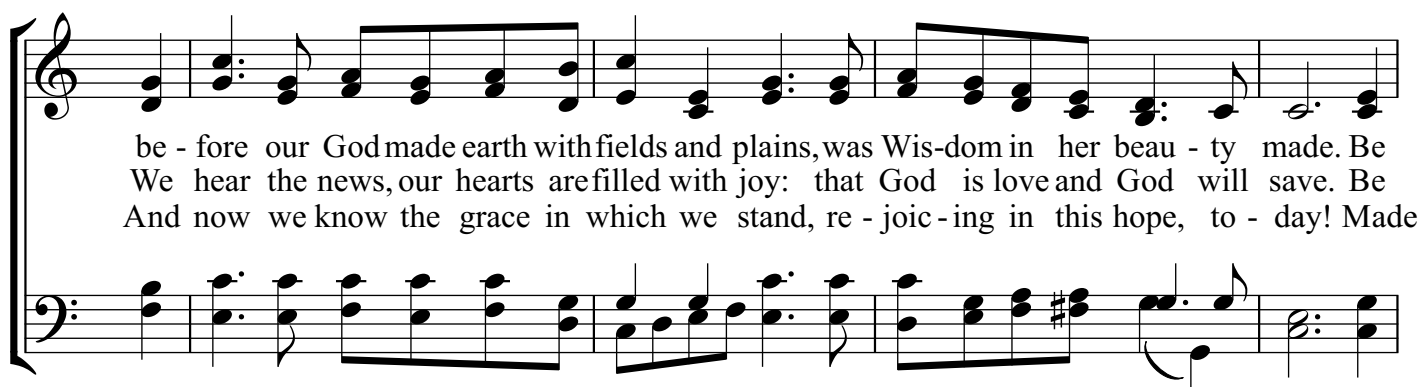

Proverbs 8:22-31; Romans 5:1-5; John 16:12-15 (Trinity Sunday, Year C)

♩ = 100

Paul G. Donelson

1. Be - fore the moun-tains had been shaped or formed, be - fore the hills were laid,
2. The Spir - it comes and guides us to the truth; this pro-mise Je - sus gave!
3. The voice of Wis - dom calls to all of us to walk the Spir-it's way!

be - fore our God made earth with fields and plains, was Wis-dom in her beau - ty made. Be We hear the news, our hearts are filled with joy: that God is love and God will save. Be
And now we know the grace in which we stand, re - joic-ing in this hope, to - day! Made fore the dust of the world came forth, be - fore the seas with their might, fore the foun-tains of the deep, be - fore the springs, fresh and clear, wise by God in our suf - fer - ings, our con - fi - dence ral - lies on!

be - fore the un - i-verse was set in place, Great Wis-dom was our Lord's de - light.
the Lord cre - a - ted Wis-dom. We re - joice to know that it is God we hear!
God's love is poured in - to our joy - ful hearts! We know the vic-tory has been won!