

Behold, Lift Your Eyes, Sing Your Praise

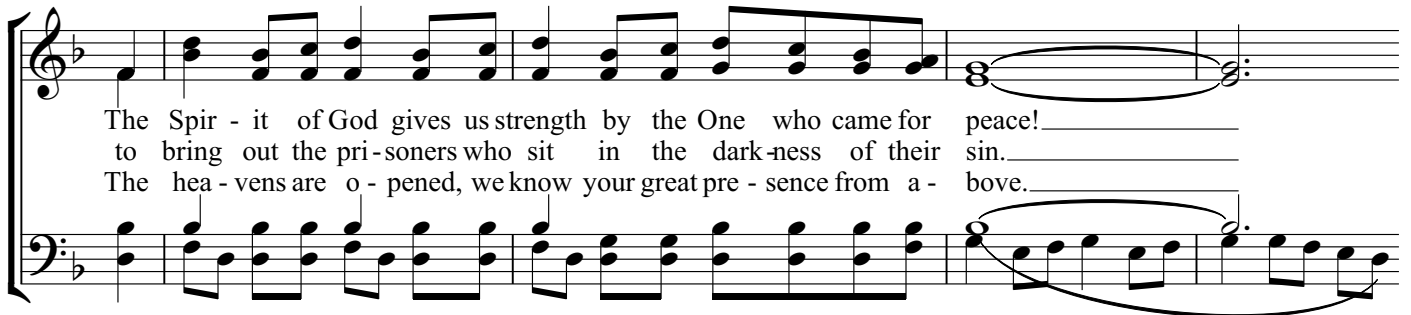

Isa. 42:1-9; Acts 10:34-38; Matt. 3:13-17

Paul G. Donelson

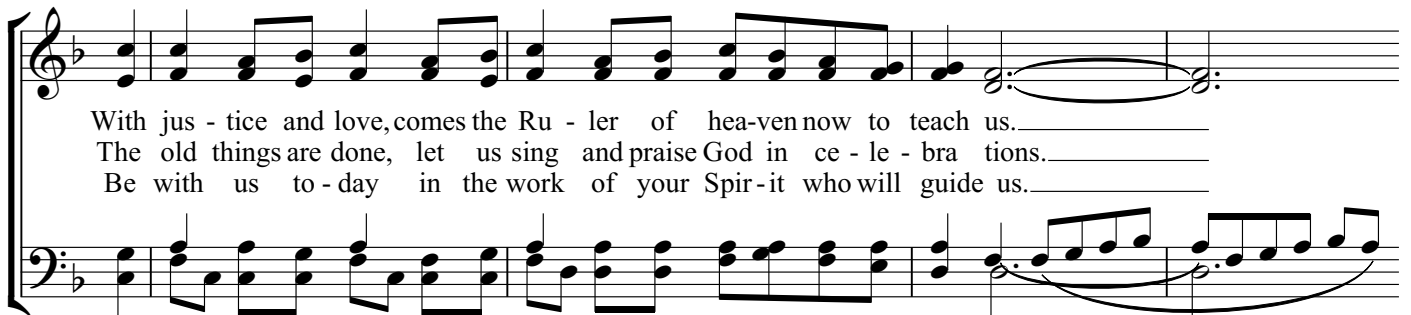

$\text{♩} = 115$

1. Be - hold, lift your eyes, sing your praise, for the Sav - ior comes to bless us!
2. To o - pen the eyes of the blind, to give light un - to the na - tions,
3. So fill us with love, send the wa - ters of right-eous-ness to fill us!

The Spir - it of God gives us strength by the One who came for peace!
to bring out the pri-soners who sit in the dark-ness of their sin.
The hea - vens are o - pened, we know your great pre - sence from a - bove.

With jus - tice and love, comes the Ru - ler of hea-ven now to teach us.
The old things are done, let us sing and praise God in ce - le - bra - tions.
Be with us to - day in the work of your Spir - it who will guide us.

Give heed to the One who brings love; let all pain and sor-row cease!
A new way of Love is de - clared: in that new-ness we be - gin!
We see ho - ly gifts bring-ing power now des-cend-ing like a dove.