1. Bless-ed Je - sus taught us how to pray. In his love he gave us words to say.
2. God will lis - ten to our ev-'ry word. All our thoughts and all our fears are heard.
3. Praise to Christ who nailed up - on that tree loosed our sin - ful bond at Cal - va - ry,

Now we thank the One who gives us bread, wipes out sins and gives us love, in - stead.
When we pray for oth - ers in their sin, God's great love and mer - cy en - ters in.
mak - ing all of us a - live and free, fel - low - ship - ping for e - ter - ni - ty!

God is bet - ter than the best of friends, who, when we have a need, in love at - tends.
Turn to Je - sus who has arms out - stretched to lead you safe - ly to his bo - som, fetched.
There is no - thing more for us to fear. Thru' prayer our God is al - ways ve - ry near!

So much great - er than a fa - ther's care is E - ven great - er than a mo - ther's love is Know the joy of this Com - mun - i - ty and that which comes to those who bow in prayer.

that which suc - curs us from God, a - bove.
join the ev - er - last - ing ju - bi - lee!
