

Come Jesus Tell Us Who You Are

Acts 13:15-16, 26-39, 43; Rev. 7:9-17; John 10:22-30

Paul G. Donelson

(4th Sunday of Easter, Year C)

1. "Come, Je - sus, tell us who you are. We want to know and see."
2. "O Christ - ian, tell us who you are and what do you pro - fess?"
3. The hosts of God know who he is, and from earth's ma - ny lands
4. The voice of Christ we re - cog - nize; we're of the Shep-herd's flock.

He an - swered back, "Do not my works bear wit - ness un - to me?
A - pos - tles firm - ly tell the truth: "Our Je - sus we con - fess!
they stand be - fore the throne of God, palm branch - es in their hands.
We fol - low him who died for us-- the Lamb, the So - lid Rock.

You don't be - lieve be - cause you are not num - bered of my sheep
For on the cross he died for you and saves you by that deed.
They cry, "Sal - va - tion comes from God and from the bless - ed One!
And, serv - ing Christ, we rec - og - nize that God and Christ are one.

who hear my voice and fol - low me, e - ter - nal life to keep.
If you're en-slaved by an - y - thing, by Je - sus you are freed.
There shall be bless - ing, glo - ry, pow'r in what the Lord has done.
In be - ing in this fel - low - ship our life has just be - gun.
