MUSIC and WORDS: Paul G. Donelson

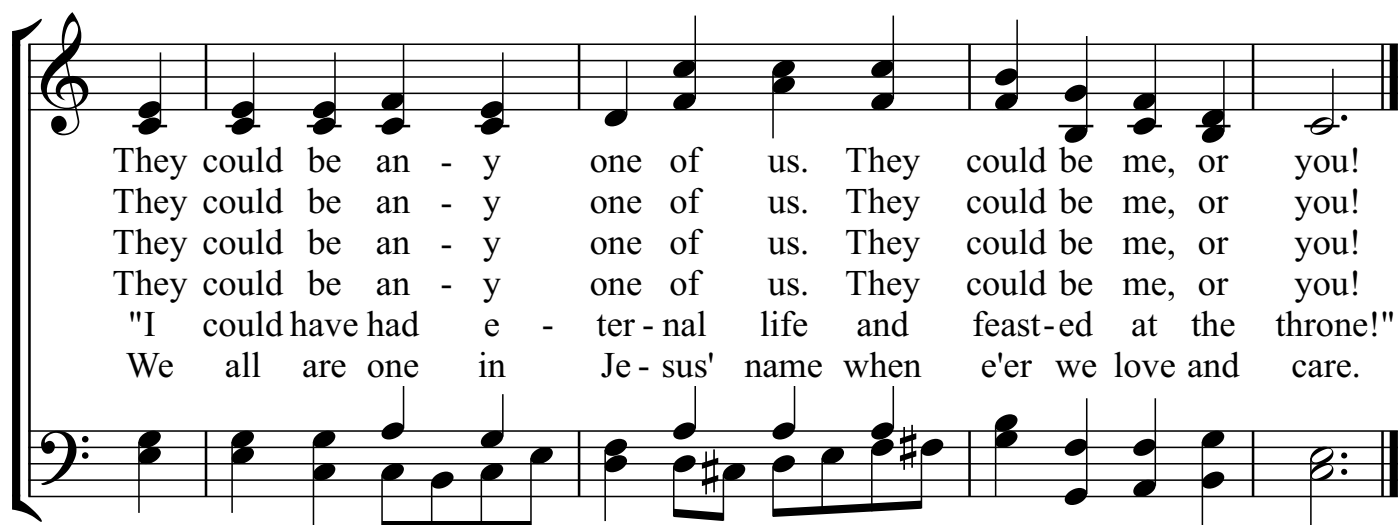

1. From God has great a - bun-dance come and vin - di - cat - ing rain,
2. The world is ga - thered here to feast up - on these bless - ings, fine.
3. De - struc-tion is the fate of those who will not be con - tent.
4. The cha - sm is - n't ve - ry wide for us to cross the gap
5. But, one great day the time will come the cha - sm will be wide,
6. So, let us seek out Laz - a - rus and be a - mong the poor!

With ov - er - flow - ing vats of oil and tresh - ing floors of grain.
And ev - ery - one will have e - nough if we but wise - ly dine.
Et - er - nal life is God's great gift, if hum - bly we re - pent.
to min - is - ter to those in need in Ab - ra - ham's great lap.
a dis tance much too far for one to cross from side to side.
And feed the hun - gry of the world from earth's a - bun - dant store!

So, where is Laz - arus in our midst? And where's the rich man, too___ ?
So, where is Laz - arus in our midst? And where's the rich man, too___ ?
So, who is Laz - arus in our midst? And who's the rich man, too___ ?
So, who is Laz - arus in our midst? And who's the rich man, too___ ?
And, will we then with Laz - arus stand, or with the rich man moan___ :
For whe - ther we are Laz - ar - us, or have a lot to share___ ,

The image shows a musical score for a hymn. It consists of two staves, a treble staff on top and a bass staff on the bottom. The treble staff has a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a common time signature (C). The melody is written in a simple, hymn-like style. The bass staff has a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a common time signature (C). The bass line is written in a simple, hymn-like style. The lyrics are written below the staves, aligned with the notes. The lyrics are: "They could be an - y one of us. They could be me, or you! They could be an - y one of us. They could be me, or you! They could be an - y one of us. They could be me, or you! 'I could have had e - ter - nal life and feast-ed at the throne!' We all are one in Je - sus' name when e'er we love and care."

They could be an - y one of us. They could be me, or you!
They could be an - y one of us. They could be me, or you!
They could be an - y one of us. They could be me, or you!
They could be an - y one of us. They could be me, or you!
"I could have had e - ter - nal life and feast-ed at the throne!"
We all are one in Je - sus' name when e'er we love and care.
