1. From Mo - ab came an im - mi - grant, the wid - ow known as Ruth.
2. So Ruth went off to Ju - dah's land, Na - o - mi at her side.
3. Great Da - vid, king of Is - ra - el, would know her ve - ry well,
4. And so we hon - or im - mi - grants, who've come from far and near,

Na - o - mi begged her not to come; she feared an aw - ful truth:
And, meet - ing Bo - az one late night, she soon be - came his bride.
and call her "Gram - ma" as he sat and lis - tened to her tell who bold - ly ven - ture faith - ful - ly in spite of much to fear.

that Ju - dah would not wel - come them and turn them both a - way.
The mem - ory of her faith - ful - ness is with us, yet to - day,
of how she came to Is - ra - el and how she got to stay,
We wel - come those who took the risk like Ruth did in her day,

But Ruth said,
'cause she said, "I must go with you and fol - low_ in your way!
'cause Ruth said,
'cause she said,

Yes! where you go so shall I go and your God I'll o - bey!"
