

God Who Watches All the Sparrows

Matthew 10:24-39 (Second Sunday after Pentecost - Year A)

WORDS and MUSIC: Paul G. Donelson

$\text{♩} = 120$

The musical score is written for a four-part choir (Soprano, Alto, Tenor, Bass) in G major and 4/4 time. It consists of four systems of music, each with a treble and bass staff. The lyrics are written below the vocal staves. The tempo is marked as quarter note = 120. The score includes three verses of lyrics. The first system covers measures 1-4, the second system measures 5-8, the third system measures 9-12, and the fourth system measures 13-16. The music features a mix of whole, half, and quarter notes, with some rests. The lyrics are: 1. God who watch-es all the spar-rows, car-ing when just one may fall, 2. Let us fol-low Je-sus' teach-ings, im-i-tat-ing all his ways, 3. Do not fear, for noth-ing's hid-den from God's ev-er-see-ing eye! tells us ev-ery hair is count-ed: That's how much God loves us all! e-ven fac-ing con-dem-na-tion 'midst the e-vils of our days. What we've learned from Christ in whis-pers shout it now to earth and sky! Let us brave-ly face op-pres-sion -- fear-less, faith-ful, fruit-ful, bold-- Just as they ma-ligned the Sav-ior, we who fol-low on his path Some may want to kill your bo-dy, but they can-not kill your soul! tell-ing all with firm com-pas-sion the great mes-sage Je-sus told. must be will-ing to put up with an-gry words and acts of wrath. Serv-ing God through Christ our Sav-ior is our most im-por-tant goal!
