

God's Steadfast Love Breaks Forth

Genesis 22:1-14; Romans 6:12-23; Matthew 10:40-42
(6/26-7/2, Year A)

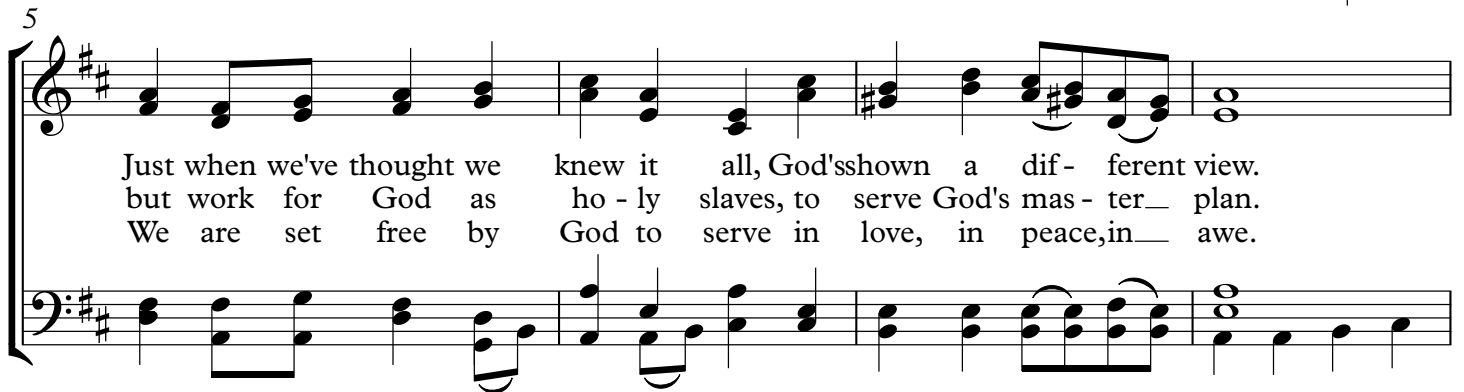

MUSIC and WORDS: Paul G. Donelson

$\text{♩} = 100$

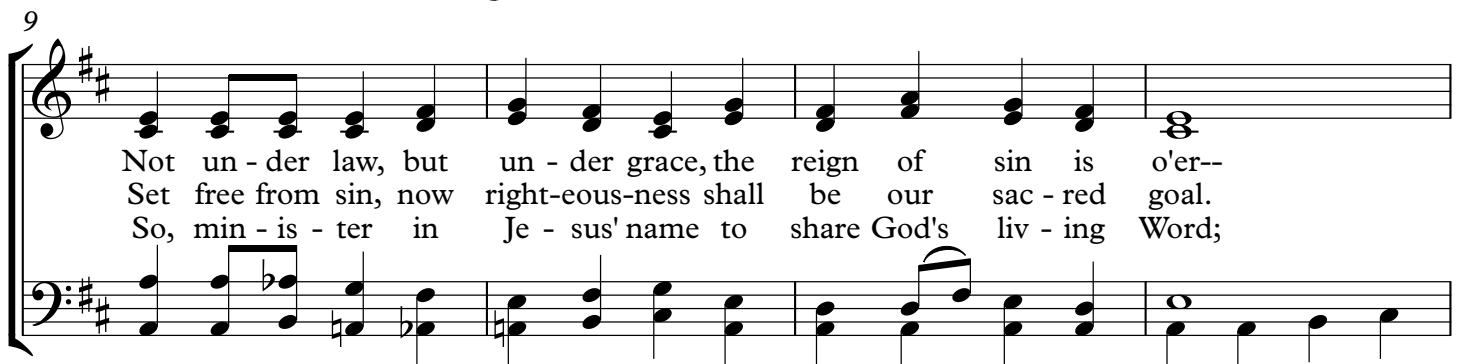

God's stead-fast love breaks forth through time and speaks to us a - new.
We do not break the ho - ly laws be - cause we think we can,
No long - er lim - it - ed by fear of break ing an - cient law,

5

Just when we've thought we knew it all, God's shown a dif - ferent view.
but work for God as ho - ly slaves, to serve God's mas - ter plan.
We are set free by God to serve in love, in peace, in awe.

9

Not un - der law, but un - der grace, the reign of sin is o'er--
Set free from sin, now right-eous-ness shall be our sac - red goal.
So, min - is - ter in Je - sus' name to share God's liv - ing Word;

13

God brings us forth from death to life to love the sick and poor.
For hol - i - ness the Spir - it gives ma - tur - i - ty of soul.
and trust that those who hear in faith re - cieve a great re - ward.