

I Go Up to the Mountaintop

Luke 9:28-36
(Transfiguration Sunday)

Paul G. Donelson

$\text{♩} = 60$

1. I go up to the moun - tain - top, I go up there to pray.
2. I go up to the moun - tain - top and some - times want to stay.
3. I go up to the moun - tain - top and some - times when I'm there
4. I go up to the moun - tain - top; I go there ev - ery day

And Je - sus ven - tures up, as well, to be with me each day.
It seems so good to be with God, to talk with Christ all day.
the ve - ry pre - sence of the Lord seems daz - zling and fair.
to get the strength I need to serve and fol - low Je - sus' way.

My moun - tain is - n't ve - ry high, it may be just a space
But, hear - ing God's soft voice I know there's work for me to do.
And now and then, while deep in prayer, the scrip - tures come to life.
We all must have a moun - tain - top where we can meet the Lord.

where I can go to meet a - lone with Je - sus, face to face.
And so I leave my moun-tain - top with strength and faith, a - new.
They speak to me in times of joy, or when there's pain or strife.
In Christ there's wis - dom for the task. In Christ there's pow - er stored.
