

Let Not Your Hearts Be Troubled Now

Acts 17:1-15; 1 Peter 2:1-10; John 14:1-14
(Easter 5A)

Paul G. Donelson

The musical score is written for a four-part choir (Soprano, Alto, Tenor, Bass) in 4/4 time, with a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The tempo is marked as quarter note = 75. The score is divided into three systems, each with a vocal line and a piano accompaniment line. The lyrics are as follows:

1. Let not your heart be trou-bled, now. Be - lieve in Je - sus' love.
2. Christ is the way, the truth, the life, the know-ledge of our God.
3. Be - lieve in Christ and do the works of peace and love, so true;

For Christ has made a place for us in God's great house, a - bove.
As we give praise in Je - sus' name, the Sov-ereign we ap-plaud.
and what you ask in Je - sus' name the Christ will glad - ly do.

And Christ will come to take us there, e - ter - nal joy and love to share!
When e'er we know our Sa-vior's grace, we look up - on our Mak-er's face.
Thus, great - er will our ef - fort be to serve our God so faith-ful - ly.
