

Lord, Give Us Meaning In All That We Do

Matthew 5:21-37
(Epiphany 6A)

WORDS and MUSIC: Paul G. Donelson

6

Lord, give us mean - ing in all that we do!
Si - mon be - lieved that he knew how to fish.
Show - ing our neigh - bors that God loves us all,
May - be we think that our boats are not right,

3

When life gets stale, Lord, re - fresh us a - new!
Then Christ gave mean - ing be - yond ev - ery wish.
Giv - ing and shar - ing is part of our call.
or that we've failed at our fish - ing all night.

5

Life with - out sense is as tough as it gets! So, re -
May - be we think that we know our job well, but with Bold - ly, this news we will glad - ly pro - claim, for with
Though we may think that we're not quite there, yet, Christ says,

7

veal the place we can put down our nets!
Christ we've mis - sions to joy - fly ex - cel!
joy we know Christ has called us by name!
"Go out deep - er and let down your net!