

Next Week's the Sunday

A Hymn for the Sunday Before Christmas Sunday

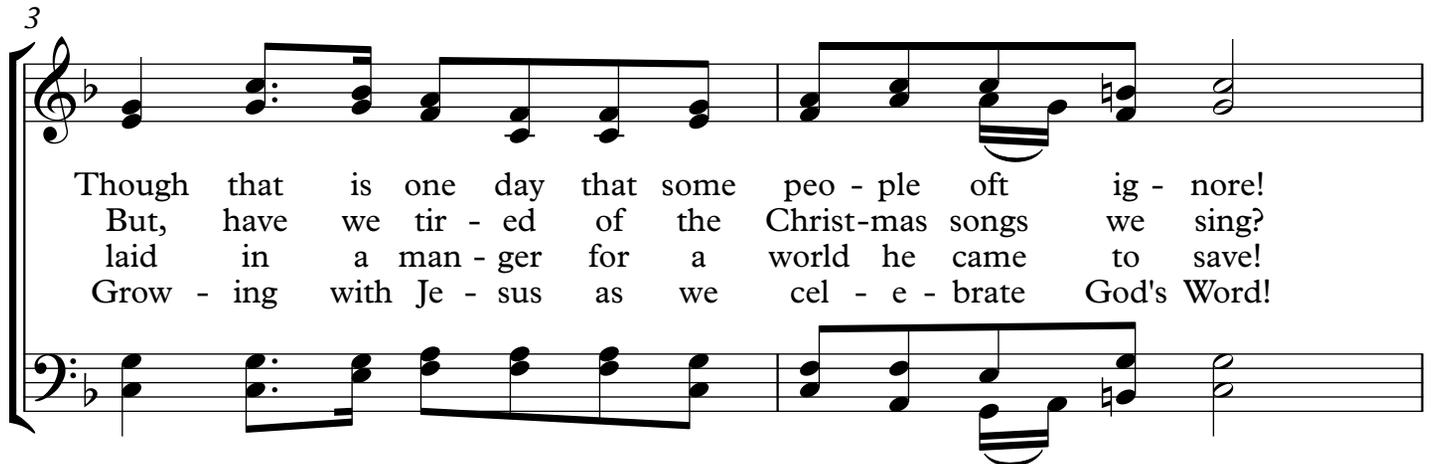

(Advent 4 ABC)

MUSIC and WORDS: Paul G. Donelson

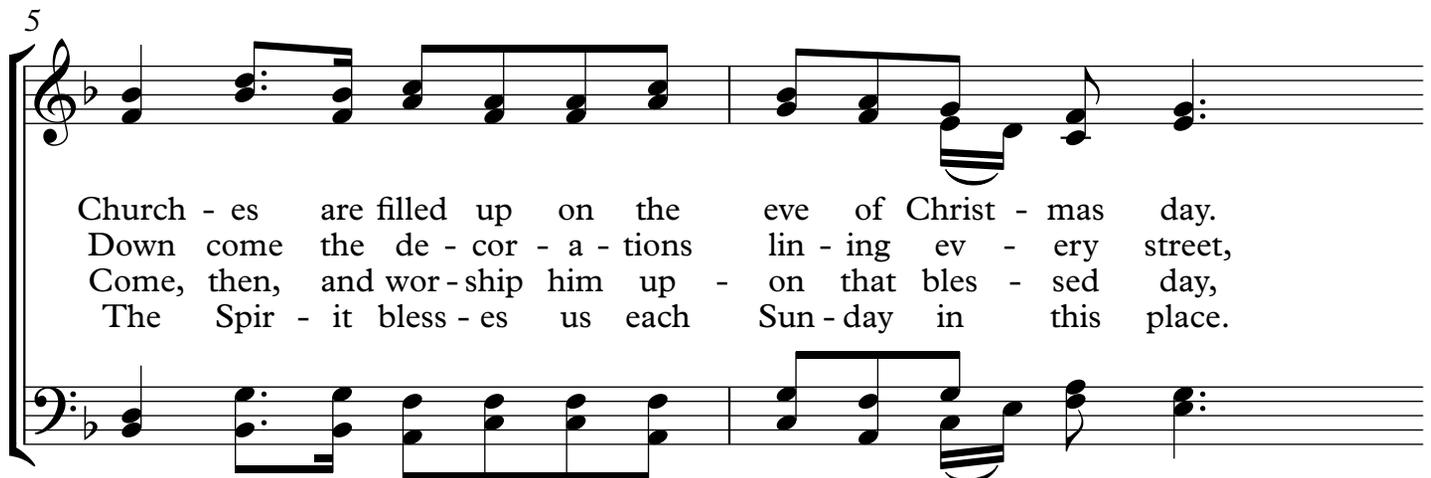

Next weeks' the Sun - day of the birth - day of our Lord!
Next week's the Sun - day of the birth - day of the King.
Next week's the Sun - day of the birth - day of the Babe
Come back next Sun - day for the birth - day of the Lord!

3

Though that is one day that some peo - ple oft ig - nore!
But, have we tir - ed of the Christ - mas songs we sing?
laid in a man - ger for a world he came to save!
Grow - ing with Je - sus as we cel - e - brate God's Word!

5

Church - es are filled up on the eve of Christ - mas day.
Down come the de - cor - a - tions lin - ing ev - ery street,
Come, then, and wor - ship him up - on that bles - sed day,
The Spir - it bless - es us each Sun - day in this place.

2 7

But where are they next week when they should be here to pray?
 and few "Mer-ry Christ-mas - es" from peo - ple that we meet!
 a - dor - ing the Sav - ior as we walk the ho - ly Way!
 Let Christ - mas con - tin - ue in our liv - ing by God's grace!

10

Yes, where are they next week when they should be here to pray?
 Yes, few "Mer-ry Christ-mas - es" from peo - ple that we meet!
 Yes, wor - ship the Sav - ior as we walk this ho - ly Way!
 Yes, Christ-mas con - tin - ues in our liv - ing by God's grace!

NOTE:

This hymn may best be sung with a bit of humor intended, possibly as a sermon illustration, perhaps sung as a solo, duet, or quartet.