

No One Knows When the Lord May Come

Matthew 24:36-44
(Advent 1A)

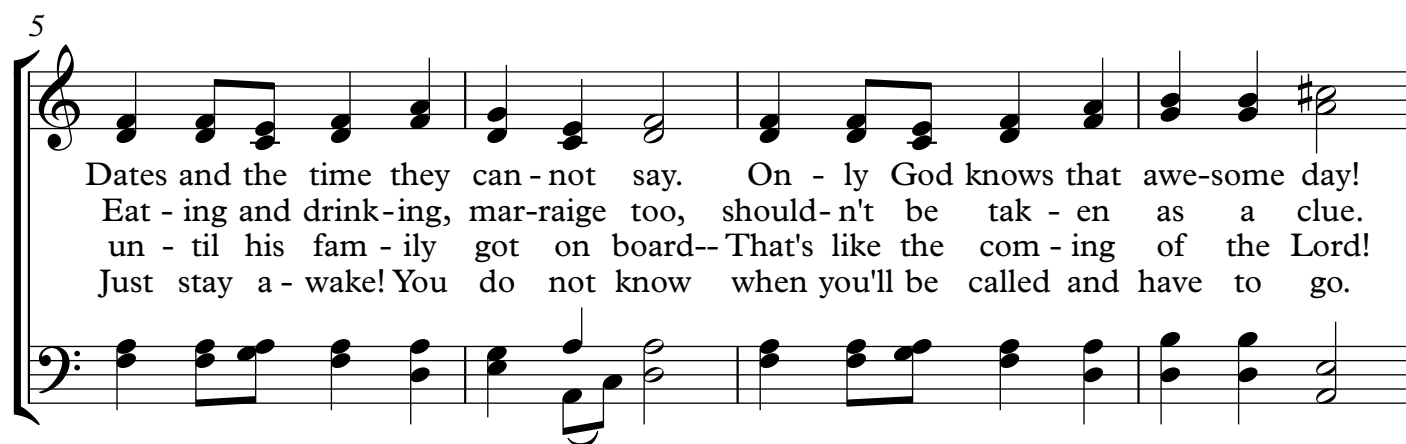

WORDS and MUSIC: Paul G. Donelson

$\text{♩} = 120$

1. No one knows when the Lord may come. An - gel voic - es will all be mum.
2. No spe - cial sign will give a hint, not a sig - nal and not a glint!
3. As No - ah went in - to the ark, ev - ery one was kept in the dark
4. Two are at work and both are here. Then, some-how, one will dis - ap - pear!

5

Dates and the time they can - not say. On - ly God knows that awe-some day!
Eat - ing and drink - ing, mar-raige too, should - n't be tak - en as a clue.
un - til his fam - ily got on board-- That's like the com - ing of the Lord!
Just stay a - wake! You do not know when you'll be called and have to go.

9

No - bo - dy knows the hour or day! We must be read - y, come what may!