Rejoice with Me for I Have Found

Luke 15:1-32
(9/11-9/17, Year C)

Paul G. Donelson

♩ = 100
3/4

"Re - joice with me for I have found the sheep that went a - stray!" With "Re - joice with me for I have found a coin that was mis - laid!" With "Re - joice with me for I have found a son whom I had lost!" A When an - y - one is lost from God the search is not com - plete un - joy a shep - herd told some friends:"We'll ce - le - brate, to - day." When we, like sheep, have friends a wo - man danced for joy, such jub - il - la - tion made! How of - ten do we hap - py fa - ther gave a feast and did-n't mind the cost. A lov - ing Par - ent til the price - less soul is found and safe at Je - sus' feet. Then we are called to got - ten lost there is a shep - herd great who seeks our souls and roll a - way like nick - els, dimes, and cents? Yet an - gels sing for looks for us each time we run a - way. And, O, the joy when cel - e - brate, to make a joy - ful sound. Who once was dead is when we're found the hea - vens ju - bil - late the hea - vens ju - bil - late. joy to see one sin - ner who re - pents. One sin - ner who re - pents.

we re - turn!We're tak - en back to stay. We're tak - en back to stay.
now a - live! Who once was lost is found! Who once was lost is found!