

St. Peter Pulled a Sword for Him

Matt. 26:52; Mark 14:47; John 18:10
(Liturgy of the Passion, Year A&B)

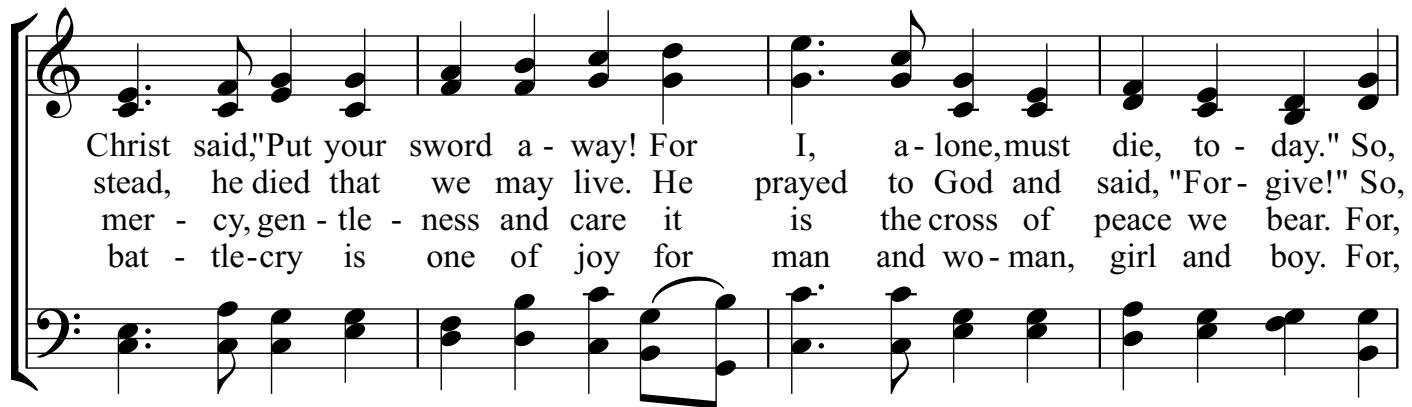

WORDS and MUSIC: Paul G. Donelson

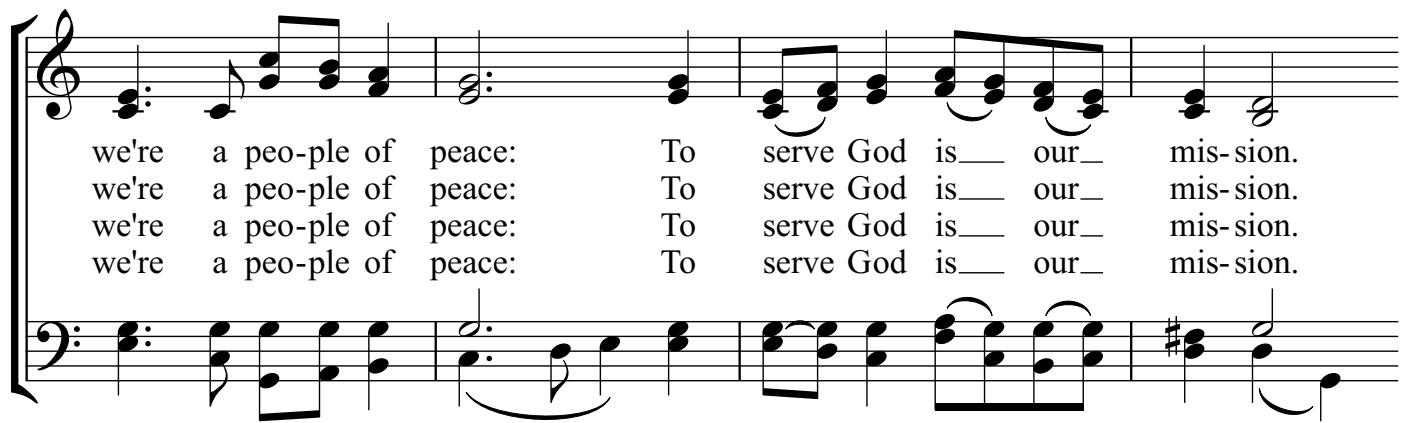

St. Peter Pulled a Sword for Him

115

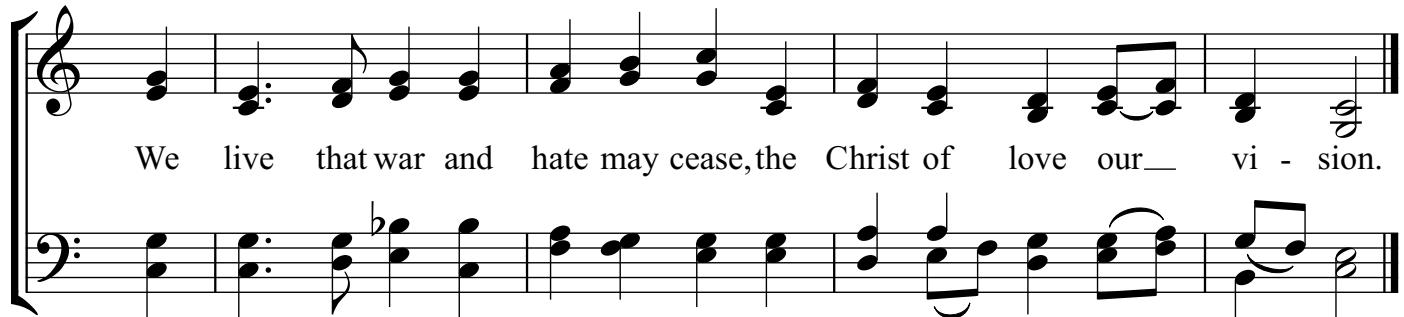

Saint Pe - ter pulled a sword for him and would have risked both life and limb. But As Je - sus hung up - on the tree he could have ha - ted you and me. In -
In re - sur - rec - tion we are led to fol - low our Ex - alt - ed Head. In The sword of truth is all we take. The war of peace is all we make. Our Christ said, "Put your sword a - way! For I, a - lone, must die, to - day." So, stead, he died that we may live. He prayed to God and said, "For - give!" So, mer - cy, gen - tle - ness and care it is the cross of peace we bear. For, bat - tle-cry is one of joy for man and wo - man, girl and boy. For,

we're a peo-ple of peace: To serve God is our mis-sion.
we're a peo-ple of peace: To serve God is our mis-sion.
we're a peo-ple of peace: To serve God is our mis-sion.
we're a peo-ple of peace: To serve God is our mis-sion.

We live that war and hate may cease, the Christ of love our vi - sion.