

The Sovereign Has A Mission

Isaiah 66:1-16; Luke 10:1-12, 16-20
(7/3-7/9, Year C)

MUSIC and WORDS: Paul G. Donelson

1. The Sov-ereign has a mis - sion and sends us two by two. The har - vest there is
 2. We go as God has sent us, not choos-ing our own way. As lambs sent out a -
 3. No purse, no bag, nor san - dles! The gos - pel's what we bear! And when we come in -
 4. With joy we come to Je - sus. We've seen how de-mons flee; and know that e - vil plen - ti - ful, the la - bor - ers are few! But, we shall go with con - fi - dence, for mong the wolves, and trust - ing day by day! We're cra - dled in the Sav - ior's arms, a to a house the love of God we share. The Spir - it guides and nur - tures us: we ne - ver lasts when Christ - ians bend the knee. How love - ly is God's lul - la - by, for 11

6

 God de clares a - new: "As one whom a mo - ther com - forts, so ware of words so true: the words come through: the child - ren, true:
 hear all

15
 shall I com - fort you! So shall I com - fort you!