

There's a Fresh Wind Blowing!

Ezekiel 37: 1-14; Psalm 130; Romans 8:6-11; Acts 2:2-4
(Lent 5A)

WORDS and MUSIC: Paul G. Donelson

$\text{♩} = 100$

1. There is life in us to-day! God's cre - a - tion un - der way!
2. Old dry bones come back to life, saved from sin and death and strife!
3. Fill us, Spir - it, with your power! Give us strength for ev - ery hour.

The first system of the hymn features a treble and bass staff in 4/4 time. The melody is in the treble staff, and the bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment. The tempo is marked as quarter note = 100. The key signature has one flat (B-flat).

Spir - it's giv - ing all we need for liv - ing. There's a fresh wind blow - ing in this place!
By God's breath - ing we are now be - liev - ing there's a fresh wind blow - ing in this place!
With your fire — we shall ne - ver tire. — There's a fresh wind blow - ing in this place!

The second system continues the melody and accompaniment. The lyrics are written below the treble staff. The bass staff continues with the harmonic accompaniment.

There's a fresh wind blow - ing, and the Spir - it's grow - ing. There's a fresh wind blow - ing in this place! There's a fresh wind blow - ing and our hearts are glow - ing. There's a fresh wind blow - ing in this place!

The third system continues the melody and accompaniment. The lyrics are written below the treble staff. The bass staff continues with the harmonic accompaniment.

The fourth system continues the melody and accompaniment. The lyrics are written below the treble staff. The bass staff continues with the harmonic accompaniment.

The fifth system concludes the hymn. The melody and accompaniment end with a final chord. The lyrics are written below the treble staff.