

When He Came into the City

Matthew 32:1-11; Mark 11:1-11; Luke 19:28-40
(Palm Sunday, ABC)

WORDS and MUSIC: Paul G. Donelson

$\text{♩} = 75$

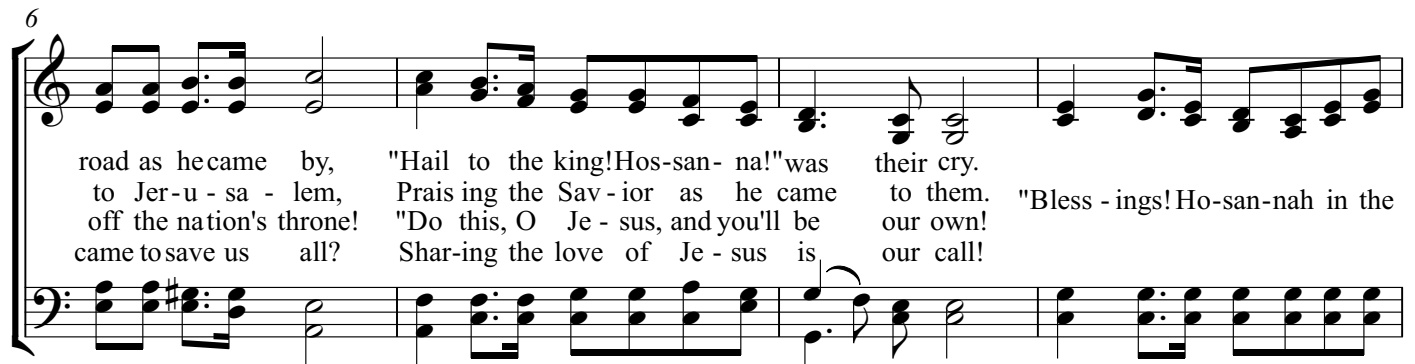

1. When he came in - to the cit - y peo - ple stood to cheer,
2. As they saw him com - ing they cut branch - es from the trees,
3. Wait - ing there im - pa - tient - ly, they thought an - gel - ic hosts
4. When we think our Lord and Sav - ior came here just for us, hop - ing the mes - si - ah was a - bout to ap - pear. Lay - ing out their cloaks a - long the shout - ing ve - ry ea - ger - ly, "Now, Lord save us, please!" And the child - ren sang as he rode soon would oust the Ro - man le - gion - naires from their posts, and de - stroy King Her - od, take him clear - ing all our ob - sta - cles and stop - ing the fuss, can we just re - mem - ber Je - sus road as he came by, "Hail to the king! Hos - san - na!" was their cry.

3

6

to Jer - u - sa - lem, Praising the Sav - ior as he came to them. "Bless - ings! Ho - san - nah in the off the nation's throne! "Do this, O Je - sus, and you'll be our own!
came to save us all? Shar - ing the love of Je - sus is our call!

10

hea - vens most high!" They did - n't know that he had come there to die.

13

"Ho - san nah! Save us!" was their fer - vent ap - peal! Though, he had come to make us whole, to heal.