Words by Paul G. Donelson

1. When Jo - nah heard the call of God: "To Nin - e - veh you'll go to
2. Then Jo - nah heard God's call, a - gain, when thrown up on the shore: "Go 3. To Si - mon, An - drew, James, and John the Lord said, "Fol - low me, for 4 warn them that they must re - pent," he an - swered, "No, no, no! I hate the peo - ple warn them that they must re - pent! I'm tell - ing you, once more!" So, Jo - nah went to you will fish for peo-ple now, in God's much wid - er sea." And we are called, each 9 liv - ing there! To save them's not my wish! I'd rath - er be on Nin - e - veh and gave them for - ty days to get them-selves set one of us. This ur - gent plea is made: The time is short, and 13 board a ship_ or eat - en by a fish! Or eat - en by a fish!"

right with God, to straight-en up their ways. To straight-en up their ways.
we must know God's call must be o - obeyed. God's call must be o - obeyed.
