

When the Shadows Spread Their Gloom

John 9:1-41
(Lent 4A)

WORDS and MUSIC: Paul G. Donelson

$\text{♩} = 60$

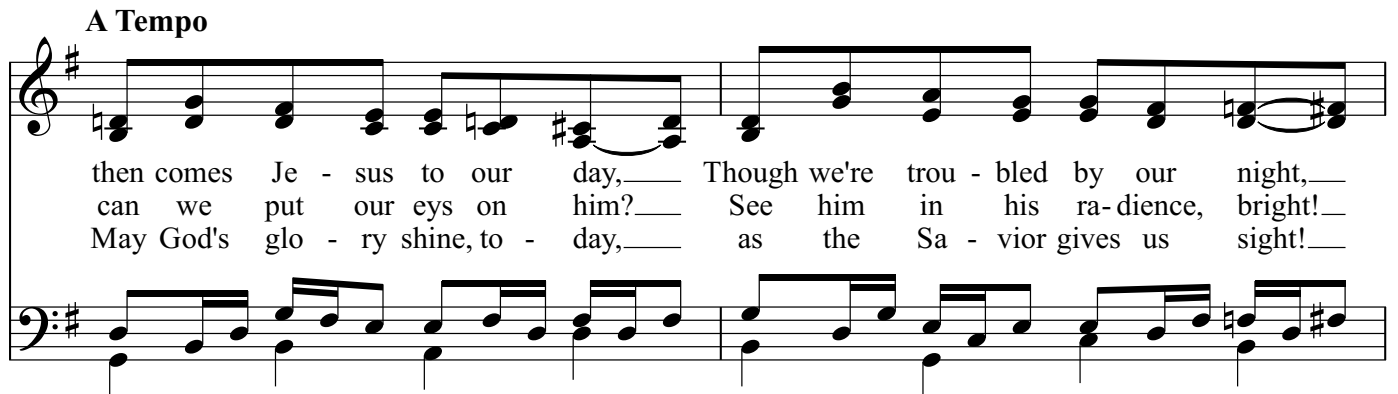

1. When the sha - dows spread their gloom, through the blind - ness of our time, —
2. Though our faith is weak, at first, will we claim God's heal - ing work? —
3. God's Light helps us all to see, gives us hope and vi - sion, new, — rit.

as our hearts are spent on doom, if we're short on things sub - lime, — when we feel our lives are cursed, full of hope - less - ness and murk, — loves us all and sets us free! Let's serve Christ in all we do! —

A Tempo

then comes Je - sus to our day, Though we're trou - bled by our night, — can we put our eys on him? See him in his ra - dience, bright! —
May God's glo - ry shine, to - day, as the Sa - vior gives us sight! —

let us glad - ly hear Christ say, "In this world I am Light."
Je - sus says, though life seems dim, "In this world I am Light."
Je - sus says, through come what may, "In this world I am Light."